

We are a locally owned and operated, independent business. Our business is a combination of two retail gourmet chocolate shops, a chocolate production facility, a bistro styled café/restaurant and a home décor showroom. In the chocolate business we are a very stable 62-year-old company that is growing, our restaurant is in its 5th year, and the home décor end of our business is over 30 years old.

We seek hardworking people with entrepreneurial spirits. We are willing to train the right person that has good fundamentals and a desire to make a long-term commitment. We're looking for dedicated people that want to join a "family" that works hard & plays hard. Only self-started, motivated people need apply. We offer competitive pay rates, a great working environment and a strong level of stability.

If you don't know what we MEAN when we say things like "old school work ethic", "loyalty", "commitment", "pride in good work", "positive attitude", "team player", or "long term" then this might not be the place for you. Although we wish you well, we are not looking to hire those that are waiting for their previous field of work to pick up again.

Currently we are taking applications for the following positions in our Operation;
